

CIRO TOTKU

An abstract photographer born in Moscow, Russia, now working in Cambodia.

Check out his work here: <https://www.pinterest.com/whitneywpanetta/look-ciro-totku/> and here: <https://www.artlimited.net/1141>. Respond to the questions below. Fill in the title of the work that you feel best reflects the element of photography and rule of composition.

1. Which is the best reflection of line? How is it reflected in the photograph?

2. Which is the best reflection of color? How is it reflected in the photograph?

3. Which is the best reflection of shape? How is it reflected in the photograph?

4. Which is the best reflection of contrast? How is it reflected in the photograph?

5. Which is the best reflection of emphasis? How is it reflected in the photograph?

6. Which is the best reflection of texture? How is it reflected in the photograph?

7. Which is the best reflection of space? How is it reflected in the photograph?

8. Which is the best reflection of rule of thirds? How is it reflected in the photograph?

9. Which is the best reflection of balancing elements (either formal or informal)? How is it reflected in the photograph?

10. Which is the best reflection of leading lines? How is it reflected in the photograph?

11. Which is the best reflection of viewpoint? How is it reflected in the photograph?

12. Which is the best reflection of experimentation? How is it reflected in the photograph?

13. What is your overall favorite photograph? What about the photo appealed to you?
